A taste of home, just a tap away.

A shopping-cart identity for Bangla Market.

Bangla Market

A ribbon becomes a shopping cart.

A pink ribbon forms the cart, with two blue dots for wheels. The stacked navy name keeps the full logo compact.

Give the cart a screen of its own.

The original phone mockup places the cart in white on a pink-to-blue screen. The symbol carries the identity on its own.

ORIGINAL PHONE MOCKUP

Put the same cart in the campaign.

The launch creative places the stacked logo above the message and repeats the cart on the phone.
