Show the work that didn’t get made

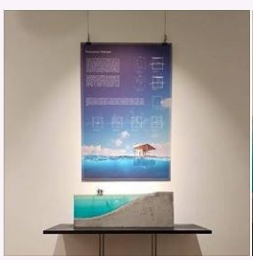

Thinkdemy invited design professionals, freelancers and students to share work that had been turned down, overlooked or set aside as infeasible. The gallery gave those projects a new audience and a chance to be discussed on their own merits.

Two days at Drik Gallery

Thinkdemy held the first edition on 12–13 October 2018 at Gallery 2, Drik, in Dhanmondi, Dhaka. The exhibition was free to visitors and included an opening ceremony and prize giving.

Recognition for work left behind

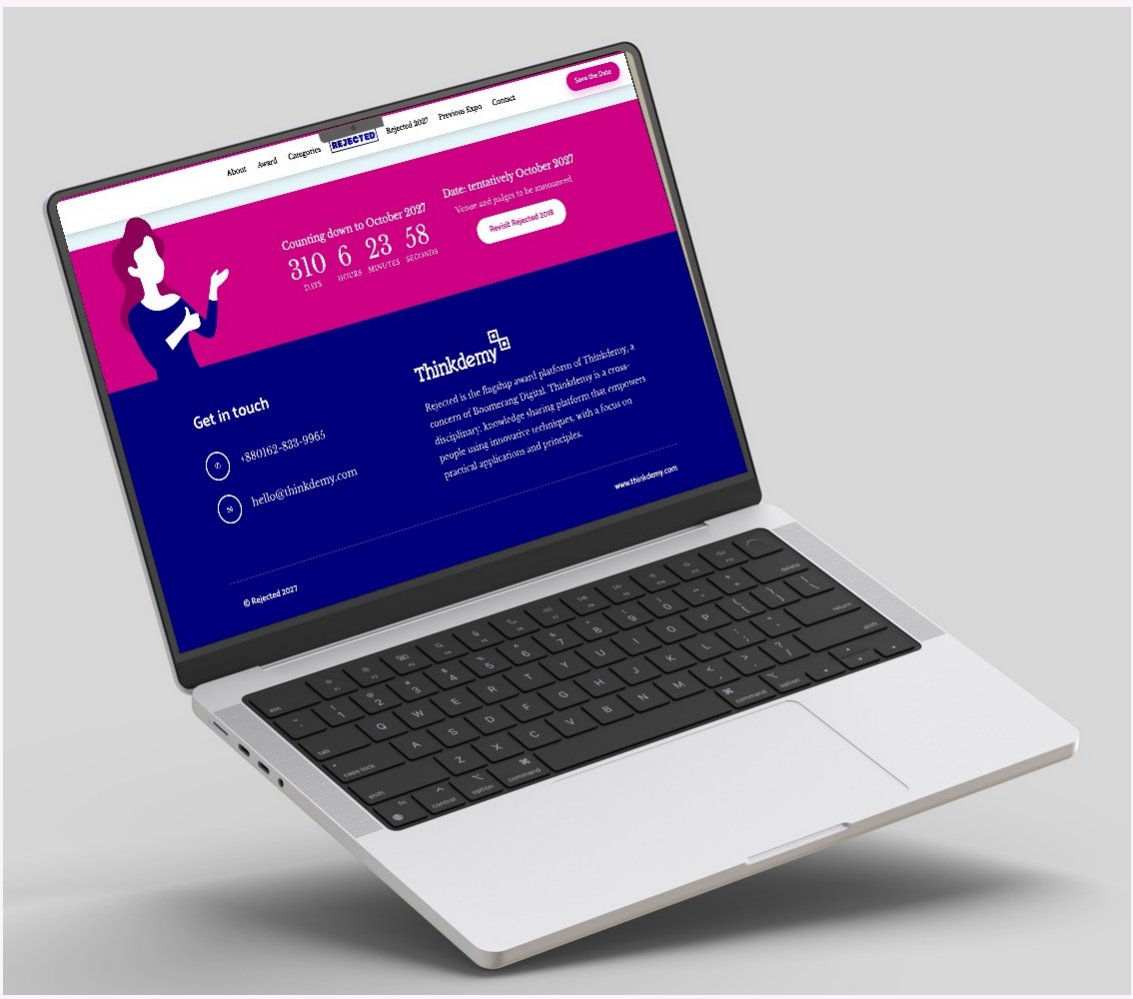

Exhibitors could display their projects or enter them for the Thinkdemy Award for Design Excellence. A panel of judges selected the winners.

Keep the first edition in view

The website gathers the 2018 agenda, judges, partners and photographs in one place. It lists October 2027 as the tentative month for the next edition, with the venue and judges to be announced.
